Acella Construction Hired by Gold's Gym to Build a New 45,000-SF Gym in Stoughton, Mass.

NORWELL, Mass. (Dec. XX, 2008)—Acella Construction Corporation, one of New England's leading construction services firms, announced today that Gold's Gym, the largest full service gym chain in the world, has hired Acella to build a new 45,000-square-foot gym in Stoughton, Mass. Located at 525 Washington St., the gym is slated to be completed in late 2009.

"We're very pleased to be selected by the world's largest full service gym chain for this exciting project," said David Dirubbo, president of Acella Construction. "We're looking forward to working with Gold's Gym, Pando Associates Architects, and the other project members on this exciting project."

The new facility will house an Olympic size swimming & splash pool in one section. The center of the building will be two stories and house an indoor track, exercise rooms, juice bar, tanning, physical therapy, and children's activities area. The third section will contain the indoor basketball and racquetball court.

Established in Venice, Calif. in 1965, Gold's Gym is the largest full service gym chain in the world with over 620 locations in 43 states and 30 countries. Gold's Gym offers the latest equipment and services, including group exercise, personal training, cardiovascular equipment, spinning, pilates and yoga. With nearly 3 million members worldwide, Gold's Gym helps people achieve their individual potential through fitness.
